Dear heli-skiers, powder lovers, friends

And everyone who thinks about going on a heli-ski trip to Turkey this winter. We would like to address you with this email to talk about the current situation and our plans for the upcoming winter season. It is in our interest to inform you about the latest news from our office, after the incidents in Turkey.

After the attack on Atatürk International Airport in Istanbul on the 28th of June 2016 and the coup of the Turkish military on the 15th of July 2016 we are in very close and regular contact with our partners in Turkey. However, it is rather difficult to get objective statements from our partners, since they also do not want to lose us as customers and it seems to be almost impossible to talk openly about how they feel.

We also do not want to risk our passion for heli-skiing and that is why we are working out alternatives already, in case we have to make adjustments in the upcoming months.

Right now, there several ideas or possibilities on how to change the packages to Turkey. Either the final destinations can be switched, the destinations can be approached via other airports or even other European heli-ski companies are possible (contacts were made to Italy, Norway and Austria already). We firmly ask you to be patient with details, since these are only first talks and we still want to wait and see the developments in Turkey until September.

As you can see, we are doing everything we can to ensure the safest possible holidays for you with fun and a lot of powder the only things you have to worry about. That is why we ask you to trust our longtime experience. We most certainly do not want to cancel any of the trips. In case we cannot carry out the trips exactly as it was mentioned in the advertising, we will inform you immediately about any changes.

If you have any questions regarding the journeys, do not hesitate to ask us. Of course, it is not in our hands, how the situation continues in the next months.

Whether Nice, Brussels or Paris, all these tragedies proved that you cannot know where to go on your holidays and where to feel safe.

Let us hope that a functional and effective political solution will be found.

Yours Flory und Dagmar
